Ivey Visit

An expert in ag business, Dr. Mark Vandenbosch from the Ivey School of Business, will be visiting the Hill and Levene Schools of Business the week of January 27. Mark’s visit is made possible through our Hill-Ivey agreement.

Mark is the former Dean of Ivey, a professor in Marketing and he holds the Kraft Professor in Marketing title. He also leads on Ivey’s executive education in ag business. You can read more about him at him here: https://www.ivey.uwo.ca/faculty/directory/mark-vandenbosch

Faculty members are invited to attend a lunch talk with Mark on Friday, January 31 at 12:00 noon. Watch your inbox for additional details on that.

Please reach out to to Kim at business.deans.office@uregin.ca if you would like to schedule a one-on-one meeting with Mark while he is here.

BASC Competition Success
Congratulations to Hill Students Robin Hamilton, Xander Samson, and Noah Rainbow who placed first in Winnipeg at the Business & Accounting Students Case Competition (BASC) January 23-25. The competition was a Canada wide competition held by the Asper School of Business Accounting Association (ASBAA) at the University of Manitoba.

BASC is dedicated to bringing teams consisting of four students together from various universities from all over Canada to compete in an accounting-based case competition. This event spans over three days giving participants the opportunity to hone their case competition skills, participate in an interactive panel discussion with some of the industry’s leading professionals, take part in company-led workshops, fun social and networking events.

Levene Info Session – January 29
The Levene School is hosting an info session for prospective students on Wednesday, January 29 at 5:30 p.m. sharp on campus in ED 560.
