Staff Welcome!

Lori Jardine will be starting as the Executive Assistant to the Dean (working out of ED 508) on March 2. Lori comes to the Faculty with 30 years of administrative support experience. Lori’s professional background consists of 22 years in the private engineering industry and 8 years within a union environment working in Labour Relations. During this time, she was also an elected official of the staff’s local union as recording secretary. In addition to Lori’s experience in administration, she recently obtained her certification with the Foundation of Administrative Justice in Tribunal Administrative Justice for Administrators, Tribunal Members and Advocates. Lori is eager to continue her career at the University of Regina and looks forward to meeting, and providing support to, the faculty, staff and students.

Sadie McInnes will be starting as the new Manager of Programs (working out of ED 523) on March 2. Sadia is originally from Kenya and came to Canada as a graduate student in Math in 2006. She has a Master’s Degree in Mathematics, and is currently completing an Associate Certificate in Leadership and Conflict resolution in JIBC and a Certificate in Project Management through CCE.

Sadie has worked in various capacities on campus including as a sessional in the Math Department, Program Coordinator and Student Advisor in the Faculty of Science, and as Admissions Coordinator in FGSR. Sadia has worked in admissions, registration, convocation, scholarship, transfer credit, DCU scheduling, among others.

Sadia is married with two daughters. She enjoys playing badminton and going to the gym on her lunch break as often as she can. Sadia is excited to get started in her new role to getting to know her new colleagues and responsibilities.

Welcome to both Lori and Sadia!
