Condolences

It is with much sadness that we share news of the passing of one of "our" students, Ahmed Cheema, who was killed in a motorcycle accident on May 23. Ahmed was a graduate of the Certificate in Administration Level 2, and had most recently been registered in the Faculty of Business as a qualifying student (he last took classes with us in winter 2019). Ahmed was a good friend of UR International and the Regina community. Our thoughts are with his family.

Webinar

On May 7 Ron Camp did a webinar with Randy Mellow, Chief of the Peterborough Paramedic Service (Ontario) on PSP Leadership and Mental Health: https://bit.ly/36S76ys

Open House

Wally Lockhart presented on the topic of Accounting and Business Education at the U of R Open House on May 22.

Research Scholars

We are presently accepting Expressions of Interest for two vacant Research Scholar positions:

- Research Scholar in Agribusiness
- RBC Women in Leadership Scholar

The Terms of Reference for the two Research Scholars were attached to the Expressions of Interest email that was sent by Lori Jardine on May 21. Applications are due by Friday, June 5 by noon and are to be submitted to business.deans.office@uregina.ca.

CORRECTION The May 25 newsletter incorrectly mentioned that the Leaders Council Scholar was also open, however that is not the case, only the two listed above are open for applications.

Executive in Residence in Agribusiness

The Hill and Levene Schools of Business is seeking a passionate advocate for Agribusiness to become the Hill and Levene Schools of Business first Executive in Residence in Agribusiness. This is a two-year appointment for a senior leader with significant experience in "ag", specifically with expertise in ag tech, ag growth capital or agri-foods.

A call for expressions of interest and nominations with full details of the position was sent on June 1 by Kelly-Ann McLeod.

If you know of someone who you believe is a fit and would welcome this opportunity, submit in electronic format a one-page nomination with CV for that person (or encourage them to submit an expression of interest) to business.deans.office@uregina.ca. If you are nominating someone else please ensure the individual is aware of and supports the nomination (indicate this on your letter).

Expressions of interest and nominations will be accepted until Friday, June 26 at noon.

The call for the selection committee will be sent later this week.
