(ADVANCE FOR RELEASE AT 2:15 P.M., CST, FRIDAY, MAY 17)

(ADVANCE....REGINA, MAY 17 - Four University of Saskatchewan Regina Campus students today (May 17) were named the most distinguished graduates in their colleges at the fourth annual spring Convocation of the University in Regina. (Also see story on Governor General's Medal winner; story on Award Winners.)

The University Prize in Arts and Science was won this year by Doris Jeannette Daigle Lunney, presently of Regina. Graduating with great distinction as winner of the Saskatchewan Teachers' Federation Prize in Education was Isabel Gould Rankin, of Regina. Blaine Harold Morrison, of Pangman and Regina, was the winner of the University Prize for the most distinguished graduate in Music. The School of Administration book prize to the outstanding recipient of the Certificate in Administration (evening program) went to Bruce Warren Lawson, of Regina.

Mrs. Lunney, the most distinguished graduate in arts and science, receives the bachelor of arts degree with great distinction. Mrs. Lunney was born in Brandon and attended St. Ursula's Academy in Bruno, Saskatchewan. She graduated and worked in psychiatric nursing in North Battleford and Saskatoon, and entered Teachers' College in Saskatoon in 1960. Mrs. Lunney has achieved her degree predominantly through summer school and evening classes while teaching in Regina for the past six years.

Mrs. Rankin, winner of the Saskatchewan Teachers' Federation Prize in Education, is also a well-known Regina teacher. She attended high school and university in Saskatoon, and registered for further courses at Regina College in 1957-58. Mrs. Rankin receives the bachelor of education degree (BEd) with great distinction.

Mr. Morrison, the top graduate in music, has been a teacher of piano and theory as well as an accompanist at the Regina Conservatory of Music for the past eight years. He attended high school in Pangman and registered for the Diploma course at the Conservatory in 1960. Mr. Morrison was the winner of several music festival awards, including the Dr. W.A. Riddell Gold Medal, and the Toronto Conservatory Silver Medal. Now teaching music at Scott Collegiate, Mr. Morrison plans to complete his studies toward a bachelor of education degree (BEd).

Mr. Lawson is the 1968 recipient of the prize to the outstanding student in the Regina Campus management development program leading to the Certificate in administration. He concentrated his studies in the public administration option of the program. Mr. Lawson received the bachelor of science degree in pharmacy (BSP) with great distinction from the University of Saskatchewan in Saskatoon in 1959. He is presently director of the Claims Branch of the Saskatchewan Medical Care Insurance Commission.
