"BONJOUR, LA" AT UNIVERSITY OF REGINA

REGINA - Michel Tremblay's play, Bonjour, Lã, Bonjour, will be performed by the U of R's University Theatre, October 8 to 11, 1986 at the Arena Theatre, Fine Arts Building. The play centres around a Montreal working class family with a dark secret and takes place the evening the son, Serge, returns from a three-month exile in Paris.

"The skeleton in the family closet is the catalyst of the play," says Brian Deedrick, the play's director, "but Bonjour, Lã, Bonjour ultimately is a plea for love and acceptance of what you are." Deedrick returns this season to the U of R drama department to resume his role as artist-in-residence.

The production was designed by Doreen Binder, Bill Neter and George Fathers, and the cast includes Anna Bonokoski, Michele Sereda, Shannon Hill, Jennifer Deby, Amelia Steinbring, Kandee Kosior, Doug Black and Paul Faris.
