‘Talking to the Media’ Workshop – Nov. 5

Dale Johnson from External Relations will be putting on a “Talking to the Media” workshop:

Date: Friday, November 5

Time: 10:30 – 11:30 a.m.

Location: ED 558

This workshop will cover such topics as how talking to the media benefits faculty members and the U of R; what makes news; what reporters are looking for; tips on dealing with reporters; and differences between radio, TV and newspapers.

All faculty members need to feel comfortable being interviewed by the media in areas in which they teach and do research. This is extremely important for the visibility of our business school, and helps us to attract new students. Therefore, we request that all faculty members attend this workshop. Please mark your calendars!

Chillin’ for Charity – Nov. 5

JDC West’s Chillin’ for Charity event is being held this week:

Date: Friday, November 5

Time: 12:00 noon – 1:00 p.m.

Location: Scarth Street Mall

This is a fundraising event for JDC West where the teams raise funds for the “Raise a Reader” charity. Students, faculty members, and sponsors will leap into a pool of chilly water in hopes of collecting your pledges. Please make a pledge and come out to support your fellow faculty members and students who will be jumping to raise money!

Business Dinner – Nov. 4

We thank the faculty members, staff members, and sessional lecturers who have committed to join us at the 37th Annual Business Dinner this week, being held at the Delta Hotel on Thursday, November 4. The UR Business Leadership Award will be presented to Mr. Rob McEwen, Chairman and CEO of US Gold Corporation.

Thank you to faculty members who have created some flexibility in their Thursday evening classes to enable students to attend the Business Dinner! We are currently expecting about 550 attendees at the dinner, including over 200 students. We will also be joined by a table of Ivey Alumni, celebrating a special world-wide Ivey Alumni get-together on Nov. 4.

Mentor Event

The Hill Mentor Kick-off Event, held on October 27, 2010 from 4:30-6:30 p.m., was a major success with nearly 90 people in attendance at the Terrace Bldg. Anne Lavack explained to the assembled mentors and students how the Hill Mentor program works. BBA student Lisa McIntyre provided a perspective on what students hope to get out of the Hill Mentor program. Returning mentor Doug Kelln, CEO at SaskEnergy, discussed the benefits that mentors can achieve from the mentor experience. Sincere thanks to the many Faculty members who turned out to support this special event! Special thanks go to Raelynn Moorhead for her superb organization efforts.

CEO Advisory Circle – Nov. 4

We are anticipating a full house for the CEO Advisory Circle on Thursday, November 4, with 30 CEOs, and 15 additional guests joining us for the 12:00 noon lunch in ED-562, followed by a meeting in ED-514 until 2:00 p.m. We will be discussing the role of business ethics in the curriculum, as well as a general discussion about choosing appropriate goals and performance indicators for the business school's progress. Unfortunately, we are filled to capacity for both the luncheon and afternoon session, so there will not be space for faculty members to attend.

Levene Enrolment
