5 Days for the Homeless

The BSS will be participating in the “5 Days for the Homeless” campaign for the third year, from March 11-16. This is a national charity campaign taking place at 23 universities across Canada. Five students from the U of R will be living on campus homeless for 5 days to educate students about homelessness in Regina and to raise funds for Carmichael Outreach. The students will be collecting monetary donations, clothes, and non-perishable food donations. This year’s participants include:

- Sarah Stewart (4th year - Business)
- Sarah Schapansky (4th year - Arts)
- Jon White (2nd year - Business)
- Jesse Leontowicz (4th year - Kinesiology)
- Andrew Burant (2nd year - Business)

To learn more about the campaign, visit: <http://www.5days.ca/region/>

To wrap up the campaign a Press Conference will be held:

Date: Friday, March 16

Time: 2:00 p.m.

Place: Glass Atrium, Riddell Centre

Please support this campaign! The 5 Days committee has scheduled several fundraising events:

Engagement Survey Deadline Approaches

The deadline for the second Employee Engagement Survey is Tuesday, March 13. If you haven’t completed it yet, we encourage you to make your voice heard!

If you have any questions please contact Devon Anderson, our Faculty Employee Engagement Ambassador.

Case Studies

Any faculty members and sessional lecturers using case studies for their classes (either paper copies or posted on UR courses), should remind their students that their student accounts will be charged for these case studies – please include this information in your syllabus so students can be prepared. The Faculty of Business Administration purchases the permissions and charges the students exactly the same price that we paid for the cases (so we do not make a profit). This process is just more convenient than requiring you to be collecting cash from your students.
