Academic searches

We are at a busy stage at the moment, with search committees making recommendations, candidates being contacted, and references being checked. Conditional offers have been made in several cases. We hope to have all our recruitments complete within the next few weeks.

Dean's Research Awards

Please congratulate the following colleagues on their success in the recent Dean's Research Awards competition:

- Joyce Green--$1,500 for "Measuring Policy Issues in the Saskatchewan 2007 Election"
- Wendee Kubik, Darlene Juschka, Mary Hampton (with Bonnie Jeffery and Carrie Bourassa)--$2,582 for "The Healing Journey: Interviewing the Interviewers"
- Jocelyne Praud--$3,000 for "Gender Parity, French Political Elites and Ségolène Royal"
- Heather Price--$3,000 for "Evaluation of an Investigative Interviewer Training Program"
- Tobias Sperlich—$2,500 for "Models and Photographs as Miniatures in Colonial Samoa"
- Kristi Wright--$2,500 for "Practices of Canadian Anesthesiologists"
- Stuart Wilson--$2,253.60 for "The Distribution of Children, Income and Wealth in Canada"
- Mitch Diamantopoulos—$2,500 for "Globalization, Innovation and Co-op Development in Quebec"

Out of the $20,000 available in this round, $19,835.60 was awarded for these projects. The next DRA competition will be announced shortly, as we are shifting to a July 1st deadline to better coordinate this internal funding with the timing of external grant applications.
