Dean's Message

Welcome to another great week and Mountain Daylight Savings Time! Our clock kinship resides with Calgary instead of Winnipeg until fall. I want to thank everyone that attended the Insight: UR Business Distinguished Guest Speaker last Thursday. Frank Hart, our speaker for March, provided a very informative discussion that led to an equally informative question and answer period. We also announced that our next Distinguished Speaker will be Glen Metzler, President and Managing Director of API Labs. This week, we have five UR students that will be participating in 5 Days for the Homeless and fund raising for Carmichael Outreach. Let's support their effort and hope for a mild week with above seasonal temperatures.

5 Days for the Homeless

The BSS "5 Days for the Homeless" campaign runs from March 10 to 15. 5 Days is a national campaign and takes place at Universities all across Canada. For 5 Days, 5 participants from the U of R will be sleeping outside to raise money for Carmichael Outreach. The 5 participants this year include:

Cole Skrudland from the Faculty of Business Administration
Tessa Zahorski from the Faculty of Business Administration
Allan Roehrer from the Faculty of Arts. A film student who transferred into Business Admin this semester for a diploma.
Alexa Taylor from the Faculty of Arts in Women's Studies
Danny Meyer from the Faculty of Science

Join the organizing committee and participants for a kick-off press conference on Monday, March 11 at 11:00 a.m. in the Glass Atrium between the Education Building and Riddell Centre.

Also, mark your calendar to attend the wrap-up press conference on Friday, March 15 at 1:00 p.m. in the Glass Atrium between the Education Building and Riddell Centre.
