Dean's Message

Welcome to another great week! I hope that you noticed above our new branding for the Kenneth Levene Graduate School of Business. We are refreshing the branding of the Levene GSB and look forward to new developments over the coming weeks. This follows the proposed Levene MBA receiving approval at Executive Council last week. Great things are happening with our graduate programs!

I would like to remind everyone of the special meeting of Council scheduled for Thursday, April 25th, from 12:30 pm to 2:30 pm in the Education Building Auditorium (ED 106). Registration will open at 12:00. All members of Council should have received the meeting agenda e-mailed by D'arcy Schauerte on April 18. As with the previous Council meeting, I strongly encourage everyone to read the agenda, review the motions, and to attend this meeting. It is important that you avail yourself to hear and participate in the discussion associated with the motions presented in the agenda.

Faculty Council – April 26

Our next Faculty Council meeting is taking place:

Date:	Friday, April 26
Time:	10:00 a.m. – 12:00 noon
Place:	ED 616

Mark your calendars to attend.

Case Competition Recruitment

Sean Tucker and Lisa Watson would like to say a big "Thank You!" to everyone who helped to recruit students to our ICBC and JDC West teams for 2013-2014! We appreciate your taking the time to do so during a very busy time of year. We are pleased to report a very successful recruitment drive, with our ICBC team well on its way to being fully populated and close to record numbers of applications for JDC West!

While there have been no official applicants to our JDC West Training Camp, there is very clear interest among our first and second year students in applying to our case teams later in their programs. This sort of early interest and on-going momentum will only help our case competition programs in the long term!

Ivey Case Workshops – Save the Date

The Faculty will be putting on an Ivey Case Teaching and Writing Workshop during the week of May 13. Dates have yet to be finalized but the hope is to run the workshop on Monday, May 13 and Tuesday, May 14. The workshop would consist of a case teaching module and a case writing module, each of which would take 4 hours (probably the morning of each day). Please save the date in your calendars and we will provide additional details as they become available.
