Conference Activity

Our faculty members have been busy sharing their research in Canada, North America, and elsewhere since January. Here is a list of some of the recent conference papers presented by our faculty members.

- Shelagh Campbell (with co-author J. Weststar) – “The impact of labour relations representatives on the industrial relations climates of organizations”, presented at the 51st Annual Conference of the Canadian Industrial Relations Association, Congress of the Humanities and Social Sciences, Brock University, May 24-26
- Shelagh Campbell – “An exploration of "Temp" lawyers and the implications for Professional Citizenship”, presented at New Frontiers for Citizenship at Work, CRIMT 2014 International Conference, in Montreal, May 12-14
- Magdalena Cismaru – “One Text or Call Could Wreck It All”: The Role of the Extended Parallel Process Model in Guiding Campaigns Against Distracted Driving” presented at the 43rd European Marketing Academy Conference, in Valencia, Spain, June 3-6, 2014.
- Morina Rennie (with co-author Ron Baker) – “An Advancement in an Accounting Technology as an Aid to Shaping a Governable Domain”, presented at the Annual Conference of the Canadian Academic Accounting Association on May 30, 2014.
- Arturo Rubalcava – “The impact of Sarbanes-Oxley Act on seasoned equity offerings by Canadian cross-listed firms: Evidence from bought deals vs. firm commitment”, presented at the Global Conference on Business and Finance held in Costa Rica (May 27-30, 2014). Paper received an Outstanding Research Award and was published in the conference Proceedings.

If you have given a conference presentation since January, please continue to send the citation details to Kelly-Ann McLeod so that we can recognize your research in the newsletter.

Condolences

We extend our condolences to Marilyn Staeson on the recent passing of her mother-in-law.
