The Faculty will be hosting a presentation by Michal Doucet:

Date: Tuesday, February 10
Time: 10:00 – 11:00 a.m.

The Security Intelligence Review Committee is an independent, external review body which reports to the Parliament on the operations of the Canadian Security Intelligence Service (CSIS). In his presentation Doucet will explore the questions of how our government can manage both the requirement for a strong Canadian national security foundation and the privacy rights of citizens; and are we forced to choose between privacy and freedom.
