Faculty Forum

Dean's Message

By now you should have been contacted by one of our hosts of Casual Conversations for 2016. I'm hoping many of you take advantage of Casual Conversations this month. It's an opportunity to gather with colleagues in an informal setting to discuss the future of our Faculty.

During my break in July, I was able to finalize the EQUIS application and datasheet and submit it to EFMD for their consideration. It's my pleasure to advise you that EFMD has acknowledged receipt and have set a date for a Briefing Visit to our campus. Dr. Martin Schader, Associate Director of Quality Services at EFMD will be coming to the University of Regina to meet with the accreditation team, faculty, staff and students on Monday, October 17. The meetings will be an introduction to the EQUIS accreditation process, review of our application, and an opportunity to have questions answered. More scheduling details will be provided as the date draws closer.

Over the next two weeks I will be able to respond to messages, but I will be taking time away from office to focus on updating my knowledge of the literature on psychological safety in virtual teams. It's been two years since I've been able to take the time to remain current in my area, and I have been asked to speak on the topic at an upcoming event later in November. My hope is you are all having a balanced time of rest and productivity during these quieter weeks.

Hill JDC West

Our 2016/2017 Hill JDC West team has an amazing opportunity to raise money for Hope's Home. This year, the team will be competing in the Casino Regina Charity Championships. Teams will jump, sprint, bounce, and climb their way through a 100 foot long inflatable obstacle course. Teams will be timed on each run and the fastest team will take home $10,000 for a charity of their choice!

The more money they are able to raise prior to the event, the more time they get taken off of their total obstacle course time. All donations will be donated directly to Hope's Home!

3 teams will participate in the championships:

- What the Hill (https://fundrazr.com/619De6?ref=ab_65oL01)
Harjot Mavi (Social), Braedon McLeod (Social), Marissa Burwell (Social), Brandon Buttazoni (Athletics)
- Hill Raisers (https://fundrazr.com/319Dbb?ref=ab_65oL01)
Jae Won Hur (Debate), Brayden Colin (Entrepreneurship), Janessa Fox (Taxation), Liam Nystuen (International Business)
- Hill Over Skill (https://fundrazr.com/a19Ddb?ref=ab_65oL01)
Nicole Pyne (Not-For-Profit Management), Bryce Riddell (Accounting), Miranda Rosin (Business Technology Management, formerly MIS), Samantha Bancescu (Not-For-Profit Management)

Faculty and staff are invited to come out on August 19th in the Casino Regina parking lot to help cheer on our teams! The event will run from 12pm-5pm. You will be able to enjoy beer gardens, a BBQ, and some awesome races.
