REGINA, APRIL 16 - The last of the annual Closing Exercises at the University of Saskatchewan, Regina Campus, will be held on Saturday, May 2, in Darke Hall, at 2:30 p.m. Beginning next year, when the first bachelor of arts degrees will be granted at Regina Campus, the Closing Exercises will be replaced by an annual Convocation. Dr. W.A. Riddell, principal of Regina Campus, said that the Closing Exercises have been carried on during the last few years in anticipation of Convocation.

Some 300 students will be honored at the final Closing Exercises when various certificates will be granted including associate in arts certificates and matriculation certificates. About 40 awards and prizes will be given to deserving students.

Guest speaker at the Closing Exercises will be W.J.J. Walker, Superintendent of Regina Collegiates.

Principal Riddell will deliver a report.
