Message from the University Librarian

While our physical circumstances may have changed this year, the commitment of the Dr. John Archer Library and Archives to celebrate the many and varied accomplishments of University of Regina's authors has not. While we cannot gather together to celebrate in person, this booklet highlights the impressive and wide-ranging scholarship of our faculty, staff, alumni, and students.

One of the things that we have learned in this unprecedented time is that even when we are apart, the written word creates community. I want to recognize and congratulate all of our 2020 authors, and thank them for their contributions to building our local, provincial, national, and international communities.

Brett Waytuck
University Librarian
