Faculty members can apply for up to $5,000 once each fiscal year by completing the 2-page Dean's Research Grant application form at: http://www.uregina.ca/admin/Faculty\_Information/dean\_research\_grant.html Please see David Senkow if you need the password for the website.

Business Dean at CFBSD

Anne Lavack attended the semi-annual meeting of the Canadian Federation of Business School Deans (CFBSD) at the Rotman School of Business, University of Toronto, on December 6 & 7, 2010. Topics of discussion included: faculty recruitment, retention, and salaries; promoting business schools internationally; using social media to promote business schools; published business school rankings; and AACSB accreditation.

Aboriginal Success Stories

The Faculty of Business Administration has prepared a 2-page brochure called Aboriginal Success Stories, highlighting the inspiring stories of six of our aboriginal alumni: Amanda Amyotte, Treena Amyotte, Jason Bird, Aaron Boadway, Aubrie Boyer, and Melanie Cote.

This brochure will be used for high school recruitment efforts, helping students to understand the many career possibilities available through studies in Business Administration.

BUS 362 Volunteers

Aldene Meis Mason's BUS 362 Management Skills Development students completed five hours of community service as part of their course requirements. One group of students helped tutor in the adult and children's classes at the Chinese Language School of Regina. In the October 23 newsletter for the Chinese Language School of Regina, there is a photo of the students saying, "we are fortunate to have 5 U of R students help out in our adult and kid's classes. Their contribution and assistance has been invaluable for our regular teachers."

Meet with the Dean

During the month of January, faculty members are encouraged to set up meetings with Dean Anne Lavack. She would like to hear from faculty members about what we can do to improve both big and small things in our Faculty, and also discuss any concerns that faculty members may have. Faculty members should contact Kelly-Ann McLeod or Maureen Lancaster to set up an appointment.

In the News...

- Bob Anderson was interviewed by the Upstream Journal for an article about First Nations and Renewable Energy Projects.
- Anne Lavack was interviewed by Global TV on Friday, December 10 about the outlook for Saskatchewan retailers over the Christmas season.

Guest Speakers

Dan Cameron had the following guest presenters at his BUS 355 – Collective Bargaining class in the past Fall:

- Garnet Dishaw, Representative, Health Science Association of Sask. discussing "Themes in Canadian Labour History"
- Kelly Miner, Director of Labour Relation, Saskatchewan Union of Nurses (SUN) and former Registrar, Saskatchewan Labour Relations Board, discussing "Unfair Labour Practices under the Sask. Trade Union Act"
- Rosalie Longmoore, President, Saskatchewan Union of Nurses (SUN) and Garth Robson, Chief Spokesperson, Saskatchewan Association of Health Organizations (SAHO) in a joint presentation, discussing "Steps Management & Union Take in Preparing for Negotiations"
- Doug Forseth, Executive Director, Labour Relations & Mediation Division, Province of Saskatchewan, discussing "Approaches in Resolving Strike and Lockout Disputes"
- Don Zerr, Assistant Chairperson, Sask. Public Service Commission and Norma Reynolds, Director of Labour Relations and Government spokesperson in public service negotiations, who assisted in a 7 hour mock collective bargaining simulation

Teaching Workshop

Associate Dean Glenys Sylvestre organized a full-day Teaching Workshop on Saturday, December 4, which was well-attended by our sessional lecturers. The workshop included an update on copyright regulations (led by Cara Bradley from the Library), a session on using cases in the classroom (led by Ron Camp and Chris Street), and a session on academic misconduct.

JDC West Practice Weekend – Jan. 8 & 9

This year's JDC West practice weekend retreat will be held on Saturday, January 8 and Sunday, January 9. Students will give presentations over both days. According to coach Lisa Watson, the JDC team was looking great during the last two weeks of class!

While the practice weekend location and schedule have yet to be finalized, the JDC team would be grateful if you could mark the dates in your calendars, and make an effort to attend for the purpose of watching and/or judging presentations.
