

SASKATCHEWAN

Aboriginal Storytelling Month 2023

PRESENTS

Elder Jane Carriere

Born in Sturgeon Landing-Peter Ballantyne Cree Nation and raised in Cumberland House Cree Nation.

ABOUT

For Indigenous people, storytelling is both a gift, and a very old custom to teach, entertain and remember. Throughout February, Indigenous storytelling events are held in schools, libraries, and community organizations throughout Saskatchewan. Elder Jane Carriere is a retired Métis nurse, entertainer, beader, and a great story teller.
