Lindsay Eastman - New Grad Advisor

Congratulations to Lindsay Eastman on being the successful candidate for the position of Graduate Advisor in the Kenneth Levene Graduate School of Business. Over the next few weeks, Lindsay's former roles and responsibilities will be transferred to other staff members. As this transition of duties occurs, we will keep you informed. Please take this opportunity to congratulate Lindsay on her new responsibilities!

Faculty Retreat

At the Faculty Retreat held on Friday, October 17, we enjoyed an open and valuable discussion about our Faculty mission. Over the course of the day, we made good progress toward developing a new Faculty mission statement and gained considerable consensus on what was desired in a final mission statement.

A small ad hoc committee was formed to create the final wording, which will then be discussed at an Academic Staff meeting and approved at our Faculty Council. Sincere thanks to the several volunteers who agreed to become members of the ad hoc committee that will take on this task:

- Bruce Anderson
- Dwight Heinrichs
- Jim Mason
- Jean-Marie Nkongolo-Bakenda

If there is anyone else who would like to join this committee, please let Associate Dean David Senkow know.

United Way

Congratulations and thanks go to Hilary Horan for serving as one of the co-chairs of this year's U of R United Way campaign. We encourage you to help Hilary by contributing to the United Way campaign. Every donation of $10 or more will receive a tax receipt. Hilary's goal is 100% participation from the Faculty of Business Administration, so please help him reach this goal!

Boards & Councils

- Jim Mason has been invited to serve as a member of the Entrepreneurship Council that will advise the Saskatchewan government and other partners on a diverse array of policies, programs, initiatives, and activities relating to fostering entrepreneurship in Saskatchewan. This Entrepreneurship Council is one of 6 Strategic Issues Councils. Jim Mason's appointment has been announced by the Minister of Enterprise and Innovation, Lyle Stewart, to coincide with Small Business Week.
- Greg Wensel has been appointed to a 6-year term as a member of the Saskatchewan Public Service Commission. The Public Service Commissioners are appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council and are responsible to effectively carry out the provisions of The Public Service Act, 1998.
- Anne Lavack has recently completed her 3-year term as Public Representative on the Council of the Saskatchewan Registered Nurses Association (SRNA). While she enjoyed the opportunity to participate in SRNA Council, she is not seeking renewal due to other commitments.

Public Presentations

- Maggie Astring, one of our Sessional Lecturers, will be presenting to the Regina Chapter of the Saskatchewan Association of Human Resource Professionals (SAHRP) at their monthly dinner meeting on November 19, 2008, on the topic of the MBA job market. She is also the president and owner of MBAjobs.ca.
- Aldene Meis Mason was a panelist at the Wilfred Laurier University Innovation and Entrepreneurship Speaker Series held on October 3. The topic was, "Factors for Success: What Canadians Who Help Entrepreneurs Claim Matters Most."
