Coffee Party – January 13

Mark your calendars to attend our first Coffee Party of 2012 on:

Date: Friday, January 13
Time: 10:00 – 10:30 a.m.
Place: ED 562

Teaching Workshop – January 13

Mark your calendars to attend our first Teaching Workshop of 2012 on:

Date: Friday, January 13
Time: 10:30 – 11:30 a.m.
Place: ED 558

Our first teaching workshop of the New Year will tackle the topic of academic dishonesty. We'll start with a discussion on your recent experiences and how they turned out. This will be followed by an overview of U of R policies and our faculty practices. Finally we'll work on a teaching tool kit: What can each of us do in course design, structure of assignments, team projects and exams ... to limit the opportunities and/or benefits from cheating? We need you there - we want to hear your stories, views and suggestions!

Research Presentation – January 20

Mark your calendars to attend a Research Presentation on:

Date: Friday, January 20
Time: 10:30 – 11:30 a.m.
Place: ED 514

A speaker is yet to be confirmed, so if you are interested and ready to share your research please let David Senkow know.

ICBC – Top Finish!

Students from the Paul J. Hill School of Business had strong performances at the Inter-Collegiate Business Competition (ICBC), Canada's premier undergraduate business case competition. Our students excelled in the final round held at Queens University in Kingston on January 5-7. Our Human Resources team placed first overall and our Business Policy team placed second. The faculty also sent a Debate team and a Marketing team which both performed extremely well, however did not break the top three in their categories. Nine students participated in the finals on these teams including Dayle Diekrager, Laura Poure, Jeremy Barber, Greg Moore, Kyler Derrik, Shannon Johnson, Andrew Polasek, Shayne Barrie and Taylor Carson.

Please mark your calendar to join us for a press release and celebration of the teams efforts on Tuesday, January 10 at 10:00 a.m. in ED 514.

Best Paper Award

Congratulations to Peter Moroz who received the Best Paper in Social Entrepreneurship Award at the United States Association for Small Business Entrepreneurship national conference in New Orleans for his paper entitled Increasing the impact of social enterprise: In search of a performance measurement regime. The co-authors of the paper are Edward Gamble and Allison Beer.

Congratulations!

Congratulations to sessional lecturer Grant Kerr who received his PhD in December!

Welcome!

Welcome to Philip Tarr, our co-op student for the winter semester. Philip is a 4th year accounting major and a member of our Accounting Fellowship and he is looking forward to leading the BUS 285 and BUS 385 accounting labs this semester. He is planning to achieve his CGA accounting designation after completing his degree this December. Philip also works part-time at Alford's, and he enjoys tennis, basketball, ping-pong, and chess.

In the News...

- Ron Camp was interviewed by Global TV on Tuesday, January 3 regarding a report released by the Canadian Centre for Policy Alternatives entitled "Canada's CEO Elite 100, The 0.01%". In particular the interview focused on the growing income gap in Canada and the finding that in 2011, the top 100 CEOs in Canada were compensated 189 times more than the average Canadian worker.

JDC Breakfast – January 11

Our JDC Team's premiere sponsor, the Information Technology Office of Saskatchewan, is hosting a breakfast:

Date: Wednesday, January 11

Time: 7:30 – 9:45 a.m. (starts 7:30 sharp)

Place: University Club

Members of the JDC West team and representatives of the Saskatchewan government and the Information Technology Office will be in attendance. All JDC coaches and other interested faculty members are encouraged to attend.

Career Accelerator

Plans are underway for our 2nd Annual Hill Career Accelerator Conference which is being held on Friday, February 3. The conference will run from 10:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the Research & Innovation Center Theatre (RI 119). We hope to have over 100 students attend the career-building sessions led by a lineup of outstanding speakers and panelists. Sessions include:

- Entrepreneurship – Starting a Small Business with featured speaker Rachel Mielke
- Networking Workshop
- Managing your Job Search
- Being a Standout Employee

Please announce the conference in your classes and encourage students to attend! Student tickets can be purchased for $5.00 in the Dean's Office (ED 508) from Kelly-Ann McLeod. Additional conference details can be found at: <http://www.uregina.ca/admin/accelerate/>

Working in a Multicultural Environment

On December 13, Alice Samkoe, the Literacy Programming Supervisor at the Regina Public Library, gave a presentation to the Faculty of Business Administration staff on Working in a Multicultural Environment. Ms. Samkoe has been working with immigrants to the province since 1997, and her presentation on issues that some immigrants face and cultural differences was interesting and thought-provoking.

Research Bulletin 2011

We are in the process of putting together the 2011 Research Bulletin. Faculty members should provide the following information to Kelly-Ann McLeod or David Senkow (if they haven't done so already):

- List of publications published in 2011 or forthcoming in 2012 onward
- List of conference presentations in 2011
- List of book chapters in 2011
- List of research grants in 2011
- List of editorial board appointments during 2011

Please provide this information asap, so that we can have the brochure ready in time for the Showcase Event in February. Thank you!
