In the News...

The Faculty's monthly feature in the ChamberLink magazine's December issue highlights a few of the many initiatives undertaken by the Faculty this past year. The article can be viewed on page 6 of the issue: http://www.reginachamber.com/12/rcoc/clink/ChamberLinkDec2013_web.pdf

Emergency Preparedness & Fire Safety

Fire Safety

When You Hear a Fire Alarm:

- Immediately proceed to the nearest fire exit.
- Close the doors if you are the last person out.
- Do not use the elevators.
- In the event you are unable to utilize the stairs due to a disability, proceed to the nearest stairwell and take temporary shelter.
- Follow the instructions of the Emergency Wardens (orange vests), your instructor, or Campus Security.
- Do not re-enter the building until the Chief Building Warden, your instructor, or Campus Security advises you it is safe to do so.

If You Discover a Fire:

- Alert others to the danger as you leave; close the door to the room or area involved.
- Pull the nearest fire alarm.
- Leave the building by the nearest fire exit.
- As soon as you can do so safely, Call 911.
- Tell Campus Security details of the Fire. Stay in case the Fire Department has additional questions.

Emergency Notification

In the event of a life threatening emergency, students, faculty and staff will receive an emergency message providing basic information about the type of emergency and safety instructions. The message will be broadcast on computers, beacons, TV's, and via some building speaker systems across the U of R. Look for more information and details on how to sign up to register your computer to receive alerts at: <http://bit.ly/ENS-UofR>

Emergencies

The University of Regina, like any other large organization, is potentially subject to natural, technological, and man-made emergencies. Refer to the Emergency Preparedness Guide (<http://bit.ly/EP-guide>) posted throughout the University for detailed information on specific emergencies.

You can find more Emergency Preparedness information including procedures for evacuations during exams by reading this short pamphlet. <http://bit.ly/1aPcuwn>

In Memory of Nelson Mandela

An excerpt from The Daily News in Durban, South Africa:

“As we start making sense of life without him, we should look at ways of honouring his memory by recommitting ourselves to creating a country that he – and the generation of heroes who paid a terrible price for their beliefs – would be proud of. And what is that? It is a society which takes care of its children, a society which protects its women, a society that is honourable and principled, whose leaders always do the right thing, irrespective of the personal cost. We owe Nelson Mandela nothing less.”
