ICBC – Top Finish!

Students from the Paul J. Hill School of Business had strong performances at the Inter-Collegiate Business Competition (ICBC), Canada's premier undergraduate business case competition. Placing first in the business ethics competition was the U of R's team of fourth-year student Emily Adema and second-year student Megan Kalk. In second spot was the University of British Columbia, while St. Mary's University in Halifax came in third. In the marketing competition, the U of R team of fourth-year students Katie Osborne and Allison Weed finished third, behind Simon Fraser University and Concordia University.

This is the second year in a row that University of Regina teams have finished in the top three in the event, and the first time a University of Regina team has won an event. Faculty coaches were Hilary Horan, Tatiana Levit, and Sean Tucker.

Teams from 41 universities entered the ICBC competition and prepared written submissions in October 2010 for seven academic events: accounting, business ethics, business policy, finance, human resources, management information systems and marketing. A total of 180 submissions were received. The two University of Regina teams advanced to the finals by finishing in the top six in their events. The final round involved a case analysis during a limited five-and-a-half hour time period, followed by a 15-minute presentation and a five-minute question-and-answer period in front of judges.

Top 10 - SK HQC

Wally Lockhart was listed at #7 in the Saskatchewan Health Quality Council “Best of 2010”. He was listed in the “Top Clicks” top-ten listing for his Health Region Report Cards.

JDC West – “Own the Podium”

The Paul J. Hill School of Business JDC West 2011 team placed 3rd as School of the Year in the JDC West Competition in Saskatoon over the weekend! This makes the Hill School the only school to place in the top 3 as School of the Year in the last four years in a row!

The Hill School JDC West 2011 team had a wonderful time and performed admirably in the face of fierce competition this weekend!

Based on the awards gala results, it is clear that our team had consistently strong placement in all case categories. Their long list of awards includes:

School of the Year:	3rd Place
MIS:	2nd Place
International Business:	3rd Place
Taxation:	3rd Place
Participation:	1st Place
Sport:	3rd Place
Charity:	1st Place (by a $22,000 margin over U of S)
Executive of the Year Award

The team also placed either 4th or 5th in some of the other case competition categories, but these results have not yet been released.

Sincere thanks to the many faculty members, alumni, and members of the business community who participated in coaching and assisting the team to its success. A special thanks also to Lisa Watson for her hard work as the team’s coach.

Academic Review Task Force

Morina Rennie has been appointed as the Faculty Representative for the Academic Program Review task force.

This task force will assist in scoring the data collected in Phase I of the Academic Program Review process. It will also create a set of recommendations regarding academic programs and resource allocations.

In the News...

- JDC West was featured numerous times in the Regina Leader Post over the last week. On January 10 and January 11 the Leader-Post reported on the competition and the participation of the Paul J. Hill School of Business, and on January 18 reported on the team’s achievements over the weekend. The JDC West team was also featured on CTV News on January 17 including clips from the press conference and an interview with co-captain Steven Comaniuk.
- Paul J. Hill student and BSS President, Jennifer Buckingham, was featured in an article in the Leader Post on January 18, 2011 discussing her Click Photobooth Rentals business.

Meet with the Dean

During the month of January, faculty members are encouraged to set up meetings with Dean Anne Lavack. She would like to hear from faculty members about both big and small things we can do to improve our Faculty, and also discuss any concerns that faculty members may have. Faculty members should contact Kelly-Ann McLeod to set up an appointment, and let her know whether you’d like 30 minutes or 60 minutes.
