Our Mission

The UR Pride Centre for Sexuality and Gender Diversity is a non-profit organization that offers a wide range of essential services and support for students, staff, and faculty at the University of Regina and the community-at-large - regardless of sexual or gender identity!

We reach out to both the University of Regina and the entire Southern Saskatchewan region from our location at the U of R Campus (Room 225, Riddell Centre).

CUQSC

Over reading week we had 2 students from Arts Cares in to take on a few tasks that needed completing for CUQSC, so a big thanks to them! We are now holding meetings every other Wednesday of the month at 11:30 a.m. Our next meetings will be Feb. 29th and March 14th. The countdown is on!! It's not too late to volunteer! If interested please email Lisa Smith executive.director@urpride.ca

Margaret Somerville

Thanks to all of the students, faculty, staff and community members who came out to James McNinch's talk as well as Margaret Somerville's lecture later that evening. We had over 50 letters signed expressing concern over Somerville's invitation to the U of R. The letters will be presented at the next faculty of arts meeting. Stay tuned for further updates.
