RELEASE ON RECEIPT

REGINA, APRIL 29 - The public is invited to the last of the annual Closing Exercises at the University of Saskatchewan, Regina Campus, Saturday, May 2, in Darke Hall, at 2:30 p.m.

Some 300 students will be honored with the presentation of various academic certificates. More than 40 awards and prizes will be given to deserving students.

The guest speaker will be W.J.J. Walker, Superintendent of Regina Collegiates. Principal W.A. Riddell will give his annual report. President J.W.T. Spinks will bring greetings from the University. The chairman will be University Chancellor E.M. Culliton. Entertainment will be provided by the Carillon Singers, conducted by David Graham and by Soloist Diane Liebel.

A reception and tea will follow in the Norman Mackenzie Art Gallery.

Beginning next year, when the first bachelor of arts degrees will be granted at Regina Campus, the Closing Exercises will be replaced by an annual Convocation. Principal Riddell said that the Closing Exercises have been carried on during the last few years in anticipation of Convocation.
