Decisions/Discussions:

| | |
|---|-------------------------|
| AGENDA ITEM #1: National Conference on Exemplary Teaching | Follow up action |
| Lisa attended the National Conference on Exemplary Teaching last week. She reported to the committee that the conference was excellent. It provided many good teaching ideas and many subjects for future teaching luncheons. | |

| | |

| AGENDA ITEM #2: Lunches to Discuss Teaching Topics | Follow up action |
| Next lunch will be December 8. The tentative topic is: What do good teachers do? Lisa will lead based on information from the conference. Possible topics for future lunches: Matching inner qualities with course delivery style; Andragogy vs Pedagogy; Reducing subjectivity in evaluation of students; Group work and peer evaluation; Webct; Using Clicker technology in the classroom Experiential learning; TEL; Academic misconduct. | Bryan will organize the December 8 lunch. Committee will decide at December 5 meeting which topic will be discussed at the January lunch. |

| | |

| AGENDA ITEM #3: Developing a Mutually Supportive Teaching Culture | Follow up action |
| A mutually supportive teaching culture will evolve gradually over time with guidance from the teaching committee. Our regular lunches to discuss teaching topics will help. We could consider other initiatives such as having announcements made when innovations are implemented in a class. | Continue to monitor culture and to scan environment for potential initiatives. |
